

Announcement: Limited Additional Call for Papers

Jun. 13, 2011
Toru Nakagawa
Program Chairperson
The Seventh TRIZ Symposium in Japan, 2011
Japan TRIZ Society, NPO

As posted in our Official Web sites, we have accepted 32 contributed papers in addition to 8 invited ones and set up the Advanced Agenda of the Symposium.

(1) Even though the regular call for papers has already been closed, we have decided to call for a very limited number of contributions under the following conditions:

- (a) A complete set of Submission Form (Form A) and Extended Abstract (Form B) is received by July 5, 2011 (Tue.) 18:00 JST.
- (b) The final manuscripts are to be submitted by July 25, 2011 (Mon.) 18:00 JST.
- (c) Presentation will be done mostly in a Poster Session (and in exceptional cases in an Oral Session), as arranged by the Program Committee.
- (d) The acceptance or not and the arrangement in the Agenda will be officially decided by the Board Meeting of JTS on July 8, 2011 (Fri.) and will be noticed to the authors soon.
- (e) Real case studies of applying and promoting TRIZ in industries or other organizations are especially desired in the present additional call.
- (f) Please submit to and communicate with via email at sympo@triz-japan.org (Program Committee, Toru Nakagawa).

(2) Position Papers will be accepted separately:

- (a) Non-author participants who need to apply for Japanese visa will be requested to submit a Position Paper, to be written in one page in the form of Extended Abstract (Form B).
- (b) Any participant may submit a Position Paper for Group Discussion session. Please write it in the form of Extended Abstract (Form B).
- (c) Position Papers (of cases (a) and (b)) will be given some opportunities for short presentation in the Group Discussion session. They may be recorded in the digital version of the Proceedings.
- (d) Please submit to and communicate with via email at sympo@triz-japan.org (Program Committee, Toru Nakagawa).
